Ex-Libris

Declaration

To the Faculty, Students, and Friends of Shenango High

RESOLVED: That to properly pay tribute to both faculty members and former students who are now serving our country, and to those who will be in service in the near future, we, the Senior Class, have hereby chosen a defense theme for this annual, and do intend to give through the pages of this book, due respect and allegiance to our Soldiers and to our Country.

RESOLVED: Secondly, that to provide a permanent record for the Faculty and Students, and to give an insight to the Alumni and Friends of Shenango High, we have hereby set down what we believe to be an accurate account of the activities and school life during the year 1941-1942.

RESOLVED: That if to those who in future years shall peruse the pages of this book there comes pleasant memories and recollections, we shall be amply repaid for our efforts.

SIGNED,

Presentation

MR. GLENN JOHNSTON

We, the Class of 1942, take this opportunity to thank you, Mr. Johnston, for your careful guidance. As we face life with its problems, we shall have even a greater appreciation of your services in our behalf.

MR. EDWIN CANAN

To show our true respect and admiration to one who has been a constant source of help all through our high school years, we wish to dedicate this page of our Annual.

Our Land

This glorious U. S. A. of ours
Was built on solid rock.
So though the strongest storms may rage,
Our land can stand the shock.

The rock was built of tears and sweat,
Of blood, of toil, and pain;
Yet all of these were gladly given
Each in Freedom's name.

Therefore, this blessed U. S. A.,
This land with firm foundation,
Could never be but just one thing,
A Free United Nation!

—Mary Louise Williams

A Mother's Thought

I have a son in the Army, and one in the Navy too,
The one is dressed in khaki, the other, navy blue.
They can't come home so often, and that is why I say
It's great to know they're guarded, by the good old U. S. A.
Before they joined the service, they couldn't get a job;
Now they have a real one—a soldier and a 'gob'.
So all you dear old Mothers, whose hair is turning gray,
Just do as I am doing, and Buy a Bond today;
Uncle Sam says that protects our boys, and keeps those Japs away.

Activities

Murdered Alive

On February 5, 1942, the Senior Class presented a mystery-comedy, "Murdered Alive," under the capable direction of Mrs. Thelma Smith Hoovler.

The action of the play took place at Hillcrest, the estate of the wealthy Marvin Ryder who was supposed to have been killed in an automobile accident.

Mr. Ryder's lawyer summoned all the heirs to the Ryder mansion for the reading of the will. They arrived ahead of time, and experienced a mysterious and exciting time while awaiting the arrival of the lawyer. The reading of the will deepened the mystery, for in it Mr. Ryder mentioned that he was going to be murdered, and even set aside a sum of $10,000 for the person who would find his murderer.

Acton Chance, a fifth-rate detective, tried to solve all the mysteries, only to find himself abducted from the scene.

Throughout the play the chimes of clocks that had not been wound, the howling wind, the screams, the ringing of the telephone and the messages from the spirit world added horror to the already gruesome atmosphere. When the mystery was deepest, Marvin Ryder appeared, quite alive and glad to be home. He easily explained the strange circumstances surrounding his supposed death. Mr. Warner Melton, assistant to Mr. Ryder, gave a full explanation concerning the strange and weird actions of the night. Tired nerves were relieved, and the play ended in romance for the majority of the characters.

Junior Play

The Juniors presented their play, "Uncle Cy Hits a New High," early in the spring of the year.

The play took place in the lounge, a general sittingroom, aboard the steamship Happiness, which was sailing for England. Harmon Richardson, a reputed millionaire, had engaged the bridal suite of The Happiness because he was going to elope with pretty and attractive Star Kern.

In the first act Paul Sapp, Richardson's private secretary, was impatiently awaiting the arrival of his employer and the latter's bride when he received word that Mr. Richardson had been in a motor crash and wouldn't be able to make the sailing. His wedding was also postponed. Paul was in despair because he knew that if Richardson wasn't in London within two weeks it would mean the loss of a huge sum of money for his employer. He was about to leave the boat in despair when Uncle Cy Sapp from Pun'kin Center, Arizona, rushed in unexpectedly. Uncle Cy had come to New York to pay Paul a surprise visit; and when he learned that his nephew was sailing for England, he came down to the boat to see him off.

Paul insisted that Uncle Cy make the journey with him to London and impersonate the wealthy Harmon Richardson. Uncle Cy was forced into his new role much against his will and never dreamed that he was going to be exposed to all sorts of trials and tribulations.

When Star Kern's Aunt Winona, who disliked all men, learned that her niece was planning to marry Harmon Richardson she rushed aboard The Happiness and, thinking Uncle Cy is Harmon Richardson whom she had not seen, let loose a barrage of wrath that threatened to snow poor Uncle Cy under. The result was a battle of wits that produced three acts of unbridled fun during which time Aunt Winona fell off the boat into the ocean, and Uncle Cy was forced to don female attire.

The Shenango Crier

"The Shenango Crier," the semi-monthly news voice of Shenango, has had a successful year under the efficient supervision of Mrs. Margaret McCarthy. The student interest in this school publication has been manifested in the increase of its subscribers.

Each member of the staff has received training in writing articles for every page of the paper. This has been accomplished by shifting the majority of the staff members to a different write-up each time a paper has been issued. This plan accounts for the following arrangement of the staff under their respective Class Groups:

The Hi-Y

An active club for the boys of Shenango High is the Hi-Y. To be a member, one must have a good moral standing and must observe the Hi-Y purpose:—To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Mr. Robert Boal served as adviser of the club until called into service in the army. Mr. Edward Nahas was then selected to have charge of this work.

The Rifle Club

The Rifle Club is one of the new organizations in our school. It has reached a high degree in the development of sportsmanship and marksmanship in the students participating. The careful guidance of Miss Doyle and Mr. Beatty has had a great deal to do with the success of the organization.

The Club used the Armory in New Castle for practice and competitive rifle matches during the current season.

Music

The Orchestra

The Orchestra has helped to train our Junior and Senior High School students that are musically inclined. This group performs at various school programs. Considerable progress has been made under the leadership of Miss Gigax.

The Band

The Shenango High School Band was organized in 1939. Since that time it has made rapid progress under the direction of Mr. Edward Roncone and Miss Grace Gigax.

As is customary the band was present at most of the home football games and added greatly to the effectiveness of the Shenango cheering section.

Sports

The Football Team

The 1941 Football team of Shenango High won the County Class B Championship as the result of defeating the hard fighting Bessemer Eleven.

The first part of the season was not outstanding, but the record at its close showed four victories, two defeats, and one tie. Great credit must be given the team, which displayed unusual ability and "fighting spirit." This team will go down in the history of Shenango High as one of the strongest aggregations welded together at our school. The success was due also, to a large extent, to the coaching genius of Mr. Frank Nocera.

The following boys, all of whom played exceptionally well, will be greatly missed next season—Andy Semansky, John Mohrbacher, Nick Horney, Rees Thomas, Stanley Majeski, and Mike Stolitca.

Gridiron Champions' Who's Who

SEMANSKY, (Captain), Back: When Andy blocks, they think a battleship has steamed into them.

MOHRBACHER, Line: "Dig in fellows, they can't come through." That's Johnnie.

MORAN, Back: When Pete hits the line the chain is moved up at least five yards.

STOLITCA (Co-Captain), Back: Zip runs, kicks and passes—he does most anything.

HORNEY, End: Nick fights from whistle to whistle.

ADAMCZYK, Line: "Big Poison"—"Come on kid, let's show them what two doses of poison can do."

WALTERS, Line: "Let's nail him before he gets started."

THOMAS, Line: "Little Poison"—At every tackle an opposing back's reputation dies.

MAJESKI, Back: "There he goes around end again."

STAPH, Center: Stonewall Jackson had nothing on Teddy.

FRUIT, End: Walter stops them when others have failed.

The Basketball Team

This year's young, inexperienced team with only one letterman, Andy Semansky, on the squad lost fourteen games, while winning but three.

The team also suffered the loss of Coach Frank Nocera, who joined the Navy as a physical instructor. His place was taken by Mr. Edward Nahas.

The team at times displayed great promise and with the loss of only one player, Andy Semansky, from this year's team, a much better record can be expected.

Our Defense Faculty

FACULTY MOTTO: "UNITED WE STAND."

- MR. JOHNSTON: Commander-in-Chief of the Shenango Allied Forces.
"Let us be prepared for every emergency."
- MR. CANAN: Lieutenant-General of our Democracy.
"Got any problems you can't solve? We specialize in the impossible."
- MR. BEATTY: Major General of the Senior Corps
"Watch your step, classmates."
- MR. BARNES: Brigadier-General of the Class Skating Brigade.
"Beware of the fury of a patient man."
- MR. NOCERA: Colonel of the Wildcats—The Football Team. Now a health instructor in the Navy.
"Fall in, boys, fall in." Where? Ocean? ? ?
- MR. NAHAS: Lieutenant Colonel of our REGIMENT remaining after school.
"The fight has just begun."
- MR. BALL: Major of The Industrial Battalion (Economics teacher.)
"Billions for Defense, but not a cent for rockets!"
- MR. MCCOLLOUGH: Head Band Master
"Bring on the music. Hip-hip-hooray! ! !"
- MISS COWMEADOW: America's Premier Air Woman.
"Keep 'em flying." (The Seniors in American Lit.)
- MISS BARKER: Leader of the Paper Saving Squad.
"Keep contributing, Seniors."
- MISS BOOZER: Head Nurse of the Shenango Evacuation Hospital Unit.
"I willingly give my life for the advancement of First Aid Work (bandaging) at Shenango." (Marvelous example of sacrifice.)
- MRS. HOOVLER: Leader in Civilian Defense.
"Keep the home fires burning."
- MRS. MCCARTHY: Member of the Women's Voluntary Service.
"I am trying to find out all I can."
- MISS GIGAN: A Booster for the Army
"My heart is with the soldiers. One in particular."

"THE FINAL VICTORY MUST BE OURS."

Do You Recognize These?

- MR. JOHNSTON: "Go ahead with it, but it's your responsibility."
- MR. CANAN: "A lot of people are coming to class without their books."
- MR. BEATTY: "Remember, what you don't know is on your neighbor's paper."
- MR. BARNES: "Everybody co-operate and make this a success."
- MR. BALL: "Now I don't like to press people to do it, but you people make them necessary."
- MR. NOCERA: "Now let's play fair."
- MR. BOAL: "Someone is just showing their ignorance."
- MR. NAHAS: "Detention hall is open every noon, fellows."
- MR. MCCOY: "It's not fair to tell me to let you have the book."
- MR. BECKERT: "If there's anything funny to be said, I'll say it."
- MISS COWMEADOW: "An educated person knows a little about everything, and a lot about one thing."
- MISS BARKER: "If you are not in the room when the bell rings, you will have to get an excuse."
- MISS BOOZER: "Hurry girls!" (Time waits for no man—or WOMAN.)
- MRS. HOOVLER: "Now, people, don't be silly." (Senior Play.)
- MRS. MCCARTHY: "Why must I keep heckling you?"
- MR. CANAN: "Obviously."
- MR. BEATTY: "Turn around, sonny, that's how I got married."
- MR. BARNES: "Pick on someone your own size."
- MR. NAHAS: "Let's see what Mr. Webster says about the word."
- MISS COWMEADOW: "You don't need to practice your public speaking all the time."
- MRS. HOOVLER: "We don't want any erasures or any strikeovers."
- MISS BOOZER: "On your honor."
- MRS. MCCARTHY: "O you dopes!"
- MR. BARNES: "This reminds me of the time when I used to dig in the sand pile." Shoveling snow on that famous March 5 must have been fun for our tallest teacher.
- MR. BEATTY: "They who think they know it all have a lot to learn."
- MR. CANAN: "Theoretically speaking."
- SENIORS: WE HAD BETTER SIGN OFF.
- MISS COWMEADOW: "Decidedly so."
